Declaration of Intent of the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office on Non-Acceptance of Assets or other Benefits for the Performance of Duties (No Gift Policy)

The Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office has sought to create a consciousness, value, and culture in accordance with good governance, integrity, ethics, honesty, and living by means of the principles of Sufficiency Economy Philosophy, together with, recognize and oppose to corruption and misconduct, perform duties without any conflict of interests as well as prevent bribery and undue advantages obtained by the misuse of official authority. Therefore, all executives, officials, and staff have been performing duties in compliance with good governance, integrity, transparency, and accountability.

To encourage and develop a culture and values pertaining to integrity and ethics in performing duties without any conflict of interest for creating transparency and integrity in accordance with the ethical basis prescribed by the National Anti - Corruption Commission and being recognized as the Moral Organization, the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office declares itself to be an organization where all officials and staff deny accepting gifts or rewards of any kind for the performance of their duties, whether prior to, during, or following their duties, and announces the following practices:

1. The Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office's officials and staff deny accepting gifts, rewards of any kind, and assets or other benefits which may be calculated in monetary value from its visitors in return for the performance of their duties.
2. The Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office's officials and staff do not seek gifts, rewards of any kind, and assets or other benefits which may be calculated in monetary value or other benefits which do not comply with the law.
3. Congratulating, expressing gratitude, welcoming, offering condolences or social etiquette shall be presented by sending cards or using social media instead of providing gifts.
4. The Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office's officials and staff deny accepting assets or other benefits which may be calculated in monetary value except for the assets or benefits which may be entitled to such persons under the laws, regulations or rules permitted by virtue of law unless the acceptance of assets or other benefits on the ethical basis under the criteria and amount as prescribed by the Notification of the Office of the National Anti - Corruption Commission Regarding the Criteria Accepting Assets or any other Benefits of Public Officials, B.E. 2563 (2020).

It is hereby announced and strictly adhered to the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office's executives, officials, and staff.

Announced on the date of 17 December B.E. 2567 (2024)

(Mrs. Yupha Taweewattanakitborvon)
Permanent Secretary