Announcement of the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office
Subject: Non-Acceptance of Assets or Other Benefits for the Performance of Duties (No Gift Policy) for Fiscal Year B.E. 2569 (2026)

The Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office recognizes the significance of advancing the operations in accordance with the Government policies and the National Reform Plan on Preventing and Suppressing Corruption and Misconduct (Revised Version), Reform Activity 4: To enhance the Thai bureaucratic system towards transparency and free from conflict of interest, with emphasis on performing duties with honesty, integrity, transparency, and accountability, fostering awareness and opposition to corruption and misconduct, whilst upholding the interests of the public as paramount.

It is hereby declared that the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office shall be an organization where all officials and staff deny accepting gifts or rewards of any kind in the performance of their duties (No Gift Policy). All executives, officials, and staff of the Office of the Permanent Secretary, the Prime Minister's Office are hereby required to adhere to the following practices strictly:

1. Stop offering, accepting, or seeking gifts, rewards of any kind, and assets or other benefits which may be calculated in monetary value, whether before, during, or following the performance of duties unless the acceptance of assets or other benefits on the ethical basis under the criteria and amount as prescribed by the Notification of the Office of the National Anti - Corruption Commission Regarding the Criteria Accepting Assets or any other Benefits of Public Officials, B.E. 2563 (2020).

2. Congratulating, expressing gratitude, welcoming, offering condolences, or social etiquette shall be presented by sending cards or using social media instead of providing gifts.

This is to foster a culture of transparent work practices, prevent or reduce opportunities for bribery and actions that may affect the exercise of discretion or decision-making in the performance of duties, which may result in corruption and misconduct both at present and in the future, and to stand firmly against corruption in all forms, thereby instilling values of honesty and building a strong and sustainable organization of integrity.

It is hereby announced and strictly adhered to by all.

Announced on the date of 23 December B.E. 2568 (2025)

(Mrs. Yupha Taweewattanakitborvon)
Permanent Secretary